Peace to you All!

Hi! Thanks to everyone who has offered words of support for us as we take ownership of the studio and work to manifest this next evolution of the studio. Many great things are in the works and I am looking forward to watching our practices grow and evolve together!

Welcome to all the new yogis and yoginis who have joined us over the past few weeks! See you all in class! If you are still thinking about trying your first class- and I know there are a lot of you out there!- now is a great time to come try as we are making some great changes, email us at evolutionsyoga@gmail.com for a FREE coupon!

Namaste.

Upcoming Opportunities to Experience Evolutions...

Saturday October 11th 12:30-2pm
FREE Beginning Yoga

All are welcome to attend as we explore the basics behind the postures and breath. We will break the practice down workshop style so there are plenty of opportunities to ask questions and receive feedback. Bring a friend!

Friday October 17th 7:30-9pm
Workshop: Drumming Circle

This is an interactive workshop where, you guessed it... we bang on drums! We have lots of fun and get to beat the heck out of drums, what could be better?? Not much. Don't be afraid...just come. $15 per person.
